

It is imperative that LECs be committed to allowing competition - as they have won the privilege of operating an "essential facility" - they must provide access to ISPs - something like Public Access on cable. Simply put, ISP want to purchase services from the LEC at fair market wholesale rates. The issue is too easy to debate over.